School Report.

The schools in Brentwood during the past year have made very satisfactory progress. The School Board was fortunate in securing and retaining able and experienced teachers, all of whom hold state certificates as qualified teachers. Three of them are residents of Brentwood.

The Crawley's Falls school has been in charge of Miss Annie M. Coult, of Chester. Miss Coult came to this school during the winter term of 1910-11, succeeding a teacher who had failed in the important matter of discipline. During the brief period in which the school was in Miss Coult's charge, it was fully restored to a normal condition, and her work was so satisfactory that the School Board considered themselves fortunate in securing her services for the year. Her work has fully sustained the good opinion then formed.

The North road school has continued in charge of Miss Mary L. Nixon, of Brentwood, who taught this school in 1910-11. Miss Nixon has given the very best of satisfaction to the School Board, and has won an enviable reputation as a progressive and thoroughly competent teacher. The school under her charge has made commendable progress.

The school at East Brentwood, taught by Miss Mary O. Caverley, of Brentwood, has also been very successful. Miss Caverley and her work as a teacher is so well and favorably known in this vicinity, that anything that we might say would seem to be entirely superfluous. She fully sustained her well known reputation as a painstaking and successful teacher.

In her work at the South road school, Mrs. Alice E. Foss is, in a way, entitled to perhaps the most credit of any teacher in town. It is an extremely difficult, and often discouraging, task, to awaken and retain, in as small a school as this one is, the interest necessary to continued success. This, however, Mrs. Foss succeeded in doing in a very marked degree. Something was doing in her school room all the time, and she succeeded in apparently keeping up the interest, and awakening the ambition of her few pupils, as well as if the school had been a large one.

The number of scholars registered for the year is ninety, but the average attendance is not what it should have been, and this falling off in average attendance has been caused by a few families, where the parents have seemed to think it a gain to keep their children out of school as much as they possibly could. The teachers, the School Board, and the truant officer all did their duty in trying to correct this evil. But where parents are disposed to allow and encourage irregular attendance it is a difficult matter to force their children to come to school daily. All sorts of excuses are easily framed, and used upon occasion. As the proportion of the general fund that is received from the state is based upon average attendance, the town suffers financially from such conduct. On the other hand, it is extremely gratifying to note the growing list of pupils — many of them the younger scholars — that have been perfect in attendance. We have in mind two little girls, sisters, who have been neither absent or tardy for the whole year. It was almost an inspiration to see them those cold January mornings striking out on their long walk, upwards of a mile, to the school room.

ROLL OF HONOR.

Pupils not absent for three terms: Mildred Swasey, Helena Swasey, Ruth Robinson, Ruth L. Woodward, Harold L. Knight, Hope Stevens, Paul H. Thyng, Ralph W. Moreland.

Pupils not absent for two terms: Evelyn Glycart, Mildred Richardson, Ruth Colcord, Allen Orne, Ray Pike, Jr., Harold B. Snyder, Reginald Flanders, Elizabeth C. Hoyt, Goldie A. Smart, Edith L. Knight, Mabel K. Knight, Dana Moreland, Bertha M. Taylor.

Pupils not absent for one term: Mabel Chambers, Helen Pike, Rita Hirth, Martin Shufelt, Gladys Shufelt, Narcissa Shufelt, Mary E. Bartlett, Blanche B. Healey, Rinda E. James, C. Merton Healey, George E. Hoyt, Norman B. Smith, Ruth Stevens, Abbie J. Parshley, Elizabeth P. Swain, Eva E. Parker, Mary E. Parshley.

Estimates for the coming year ending February 15, 1913:

Money required by law	$930 00
Money required for text books and school supplies...	120 00
Money required for High School and Academy tuition	600 00
Money required for flags and appurtenances	10 00
Money needed for salaries and expenses of School Board.....	40 00
Money needed for salary of Truant Officer.....	5 00
Money needed for salary of Treasurer.....	5 00
Money recommended for repairs to school houses, outbuildings and fences	225 00

All four of the school houses have been painted upon the outside within the last three years. The outbuildings and fences are in fairly good repair, except at Crawley's Falls, where a fence around the yard is needed, and the outbuilding should be shingled. Two school houses, the North road and that at East Brentwood, need new floors laid in their school rooms. And the latter should have new seats and desks in place of those now in use, that have been there since the house was built, and are dilapidated and broken.
